Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/647,914	Applicant(s) AEGERTER ET AL.
	Examiner Nicole Blan	Art Unit 1792

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 67-83 and 85-99 are currently pending in the application.
2. At this time, the Office of Petitions has not yet reached a decision with regards to the Oath/Declaration. Once a decision has been reached, the Applicants' will be notified of the decision.

Response to Declaration

3. The declaration filed on October 30, 2007 under 37 CFR 1.131 has been considered but is ineffective to overcome the Lloyd et al. reference.
4. The declaration submitted by Mr. Peace in an attempt to demonstrate prior conception and reduction to practice of the subject matter claimed has been considered but is not convincing for the following reasons:

a) Ordinarily an applicant may use an affidavit of prior invention under 37 CFR 1.131 to overcome a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) or 102(e). An exception to the rule arises when the reference is a patent or application published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b) and the reference has claims directed to the same patentable invention as the application claims being rejected. The subject matter claimed in the instant application is directed to the same patentable invention; therefore, it was not proper to file a declaration under 37 CFR 1.131 but would have been proper to file under 37 CFR 41.202. See MPEP 715 and 2305.

b) The declaration is not commensurate in scope with the claims because the evidence does not show any signs of rotation, does not discuss or mention the difference in flow rates between the first and second fluids, does not disclose the use of deionized water as a rinsing fluid or hydrochloric acid as the dissolving fluid, there is no support for delivering the rinse and dissolving fluids independently of mechanical scrubbing, and there is no mention of edge cleaning or edge exclusion zones during the cleaning process.

- c) The declaration is not signed by all of the inventors.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claims 68, 71-72, 81, 88, and 97 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

In the third line of claims 68, 71, 81, and 97, "... delivering the rinse onto the first surface at a greater flow rate compared to a flow rate of ..." is not supported in the original disclosure. Even though the specification describes controlling the extent to which the etching fluid is applied by controlling its flow rate, it does not describe that the flow rate of the rinsing fluid is greater than that of the dissolving fluid.

In the last line of claims 72 and 88, "...occurs independently of mechanical scrubbing" is not supported in the original disclosure. The original disclosure is silent with respect to the cleaning process being completed independent of scrubbing.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

8. Claims 67-83 and 85-99 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102 (a/e) as being anticipated by Lloyd et al. (U.S. Patent 6,290,865), as per the reasons clearly stated in the final office action on the merits dated October 13, 2006.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments filed on October 30, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The declaration provided by Mr. Peace has not been accepted for the reasons stated above. As such, the '865 patent will not be removed as prior art and the previous rejection is maintained. Furthermore, the application will not be placed in condition for allowance; thus, no interference has been declared.

Conclusion

10. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Nicole Blan whose telephone number is 571-270-1838. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Thursday 8-5 and alternating Fridays 8-4.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Michael Cleveland can be reached on 571-272-1418. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
